

SCHEDULE C

Required Supplemental Terms and Conditions

This Schedule C (Required Supplemental Terms and Conditions) is fully incorporated by reference into your agreement(s) for screening services with RentGrow, Inc. (including through the Yardi® Breeze Terms of Use, if applicable) (each an "Agreement") and to the extent necessary replaces in its entirety all earlier revisions of these terms, however named, and whether contained in a Schedule C, an Exhibit 1, or that were otherwise part of the Agreement between you and RentGrow.

NOTE: For purposes of all TransUnion terms and conditions in this Schedule C only: (a) all references to "End User" shall mean and refer to Client, Property Manager and End-User as those terms are defined in the Agreement, as applicable; and (b) all references to "Subscriber" shall mean and refer to RentGrow as defined in the Agreement, as applicable.

1. End User has a permissible purpose for obtaining consumer reports in accordance with the Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. § 1681 et seq.) including, without limitation, all amendments thereto ("FCRA"). The End User certifies its permissible purpose as:
 - In connection with a credit transaction involving the consumer on whom the information is to be furnished an involving the extension of credit to, or review or collection of an account of the consumer; or
 - In connection with the underwriting of insurance involving the consumer or review of existing policy holders for insurance underwriting purposes, or in connection with an insurance claim where written permission of the consumer has been obtained; or
 - In connection with a tenant screening application involving the consumer; or
 - In accordance with the written instructions of the consumer; or
 - For a legitimate business need in connection with a business transaction that is initiated by the consumer; or
 - As a potential investor, servicer or current insurer in connection with a valuation of, or assessment of, the credit or prepayment risks.
2. End User certifies that End User shall use the consumer reports: (a) solely for the Subscriber's certified use(s); and (b) solely for End User's exclusive one-time use. End User shall not request, obtain or use consumer reports for any other purpose including, but not limited to, for the purpose of selling, leasing, renting or otherwise providing information obtained under this Agreement to any other party, whether alone, in conjunction with End User's own data, or otherwise in any service which is derived from the consumer reports. The consumer reports shall be requested by, and disclosed by End User only to End User's designated and authorized employees having a need to know and only to the extent necessary to enable End User to use the Consumer Reports in accordance with this Agreement. End User shall ensure that such designated and authorized employees shall not attempt to obtain any Consumer Reports on themselves, associates, or any other person except in the exercise of their official duties.
3. End User agrees that any of its computers from which a person could order, access, or view Consumer Reports are secured when unattended by authorized personnel who have a need to know the information contained in the Consumer Reports.
4. End User certifies that End User shall use any sex offender records delivered by Reseller within a consumer report only for the permitted purpose(s) certified by the End User and in accordance with all local state laws and regulatory restrictions that may restrict the use of sex offender records. Reseller agrees to ensure that End User is solely responsible for compliance with local state laws and regulations that may further limit the use of sex offender records within consumer reports.
5. THE FCRA PROVIDES THAT ANY PERSON WHO KNOWINGLY AND WILLFULLY OBTAINS INFORMATION ON A CONSUMER FROM A CONSUMER REPORTING AGENCY UNDER FALSE PRETENSES SHALL BE FINED UNDER TITLE 18 OF THE UNITED STATES CODE OR IMPRISONED NOT MORE THAN TWO YEARS, OR BOTH.
6. End User shall use each Consumer Report only for a one-time use and shall hold the report in strict confidence, and not disclose it to any third parties; provided, however, that End User may, but is not required to, disclose the report to the subject of the report only in connection with an adverse action based on the report. Moreover, unless otherwise explicitly authorized in an agreement between Reseller and its End User for scores obtained from TransUnion, or as explicitly otherwise authorized in advance and in writing by TransUnion through Reseller, End User shall not disclose to consumers or any third party, any or all such scores provided under such agreement, unless clearly required by law.
7. With just cause, such as violation of the terms of the End User's contract or a legal requirement, or a material change in existing legal requirements that adversely affects the End User's agreement, Reseller may, upon its election, discontinue serving the End User and cancel the agreement immediately.

Access to Information Contained in the Death Master File ("DMF")

End User certifies that it meets the qualifications of a Certified Person under 15 CFR Part 1110.2 and that its access to the DMF is appropriate because:

- a. Certified Person: End User has a legitimate fraud prevention interest, or has a legitimate business purpose pursuant to a law, governmental rule, regulation or fiduciary duty, and shall specify the basis for so certifying; and
- b. Security: End User has systems, facilities, and procedures in place to safeguard the accessed information; experience in maintaining the confidentiality, security, and appropriate use of the accessed information, pursuant to requirements similar to the requirements of section 6103(p)(4) as if such section applied to End User; and
- c. End User shall not disclose information derived from the DMF to the consumer or any third party, unless clearly required by law.
- d. Penalties: End User acknowledges that failure to comply with the provisions above may subject Reseller to penalties under 15 CFR 1110.200 of $1,000 for each disclosure or use, up to a maximum of $250,000 in penalties per calendar year.
- e. Indemnification and Hold Harmless: End User shall indemnify and hold harmless TransUnion and the U.S. Government/NTIS from all claims, demands, damages, expenses, and losses, whether sounding in tort, contract, or otherwise, arising from or in connection with End User's, or End User's employees, contractors, or subcontractors, use of the DMF. This provision shall survive termination of the Agreement and will include any and all claims or liabilities arising from intellectual property rights.
- f. Liability:
 - a. Neither TransUnion nor the U.S. Government/NTIS (a) make any warranty, express or implied, with respect to information provided under this Section of the Policy, including, but not limited to, implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for any particular use; (b) assume any liability for any direct, indirect or consequential damages flowing from any use of any part of the DMF, including infringement of third party intellectual property rights; and (c) assume any liability for any errors or omissions in the DMF. The DMF does have inaccuracies and NTIS and the Social Security Administration, which provides the DMF to NTIS, does not guarantee the accuracy of the DMF. SSA does not have a death record for all deceased persons. Therefore, the absence of a particular person on the DMF is not proof that the individual is alive. Further, in rare instances, it is possible for the records of a person who is not deceased to be included erroneously in the DMF.
 - b. If an individual claims that SSA has incorrectly listed someone as deceased (or has incorrect dates/data on the DMF) the individual should be told to contact their local Social Security office (with proof) to have the error corrected. The local Social Security office will:
 - i. Make the correction to the main NUMIDENT file at SSA and give the individual a verification document of SSA's current records to use to show any company, recipient/purchaser of the DMF that has the error; OR,
 - ii. Find that SSA already has the correct information on the main NUMIDENT file and DMF (probably corrected sometime prior), and give the individual a verification document of SSA's records to use to show to any company subscriber/purchaser of the DMF that had the error.

TransUnion Scores

1. End User will request scores only for End User's exclusive use. End User may store Scores solely for End User's own use in furtherance of End User's original purpose for obtaining Scores. End User shall not use the Scores for model development or model calibration and shall not reverse engineer the Score. All Scores provided hereunder will be held in strict confidence and may never be sold, licensed, copied, reused, disclosed, reproduced, revealed or made accessible, in whole or in part, to any Person except (i) to those employees of End User with a need to know and in the course of their employment; (ii) to those third party processing agents of End User who have executed an agreement that limits the use of the Scores by the third party to the use permitted to End User and contains the prohibitions set forth herein regarding model development, model calibration and reverse engineering; (iii) when accompanied by the corresponding reason codes, to the consumer who is the subject of the Score; or (iv) as required by law.

Equifax Information Services LLC ("Equifax")

Equifax Information Services (as defined below) will be received by Qualified Subscriber through CRA subject to the following conditions (the "Terms and Conditions"):

1. Any information services and data originating from Equifax (the "Equifax Information Services" or "Equifax Information") will be requested only for Subscriber's exclusive use and held in strict confidence except to the extent that disclosure to others is required or permitted under the last sentence of this Paragraph. Only designated representatives of Qualified Subscriber will request Equifax Information Services on Qualified Subscriber's employees, and employees are forbidden to obtain consumer reports on themselves, associates or any other persons except in the exercise of their official duties. Qualified Subscriber will not disclose Equifax Information to the subject of the report except as permitted or required by law, but will refer the subject to Equifax.
2. Qualified Subscriber will hold Equifax and all its agents harmless on account of any expense or damage arising or resulting from the publishing or other disclosure of Equifax Information by Qualified Subscriber, its employees or agents contrary to the conditions of Paragraph 1 or applicable law.
3. Recognizing that information for the Equifax Information Services is secured by and through fallible human sources and that, for the fee charged, Equifax cannot be an insurer of the accuracy of the Equifax Information Services, Qualified Subscriber understands that the accuracy of any Equifax Information Service received by Qualified Subscriber is not guaranteed by Equifax, and Qualified Subscriber releases Equifax and its affiliate companies, agents, employees, and independent contractors from liability, even if caused by negligence, in connection with the Equifax Information Services and from any loss or expense suffered by Qualified Subscriber resulting directly or indirectly from Equifax Information.
4. Qualified Subscriber will be charged for the Equifax Information Services by CRA, which is responsible for paying Equifax for the Equifax Information Services.
5. Written notice by either party to the other will terminate these Terms and Conditions effective ten (10) days after the date of that notice, but the obligations and agreements set forth in Paragraphs 1, 2, 3, 6, 7, and 8 herein will remain in force.
6. Qualified Subscriber certifies that it will order Equifax Information Services that are consumer reports, as defined by the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq. ("FCRA"), only when Qualified Subscriber intends to use that consumer report information: (a) in accordance with the FCRA and all state law counterparts; and (b) for one of the following permissible purposes: (i) in connection with a credit transaction involving the consumer on whom the consumer report is to be furnished and involving the extension of credit to, or review or collection of an account of, the consumer; (ii) in connection with the underwriting of insurance involving the consumer; (iii) as a potential investor or servicer, or current insurer, in connection with a valuation of, or an assessment of the credit or prepayment risks associated with, an existing credit obligation; (iv) when Qualified Subscriber otherwise has a legitimate business need for the information either in connection with a business transaction that is initiated by the consumer, or to review an account to determine whether the consumer continues to meet the terms of the accounts; or (v) for employment purposes; provided, however, that QUALIFIED SUBSCRIBER IS NOT AUTHORIZED TO REQUEST OR RECEIVE CONSUMER REPORTS FOR EMPLOYMENT PURPOSES UNLESS QUALIFIED SUBSCRIBER HAS AGREED IN WRITING TO THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE EQUIFAX PERSONA SERVICE. Qualified Subscriber will comply with the applicable provisions of the FCRA, Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act, Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act and any amendments to them, all state law counterparts of them, and all applicable regulations promulgated under any of them including, without limitation, any provisions requiring adverse action notification to the consumer. Qualified Subscriber will use each consumer report ordered under these Terms and Conditions for one of the foregoing purposes and for no other purpose.
7. It is recognized and understood that the FCRA provides that anyone "who knowingly and willfully obtains information on a consumer from a consumer reporting agency under false pretenses shall be fined under Title 18, United States Code, imprisoned for not more than two (2) years, or both." Equifax may periodically conduct audits of Qualified Subscriber regarding its compliance with these Terms and Conditions, including, without limitation, the FCRA, other certifications and security provisions in these Terms and Conditions. Audits will be conducted by mail whenever possible and will require Qualified Subscriber to provide documentation as to permissible use of particular consumer reports. Qualified Subscriber gives its consent to Equifax to conduct such audits and agrees that any failure to cooperate fully and promptly in the conduct of any audit, or Qualified Subscriber's material breach of these Terms and Conditions, constitute grounds for immediate suspension of service or termination of these Terms and Conditions, notwithstanding Paragraph 5 above. If Equifax terminates these Terms and Conditions due to the conditions in the preceding sentence, Qualified Subscriber (i) unconditionally releases and agrees to hold Equifax harmless and indemnify it from and against any and all liabilities of whatever kind or nature that may arise from or relate to such termination, and (ii) covenants it will not assert any claim or cause of action of any kind or nature against Equifax in connection with such termination.

8. California Law Certification. Qualified Subscriber will refer to Exhibit 1-A in making the following certification, and Qualified Subscriber agrees to comply with all applicable provisions of the California Credit Reporting Agencies Act.

SCHEDULE C

Required Supplemental Terms and Conditions

NOTICE TO USERS OF CONSUMER REPORTS: OBLIGATIONS OF USERS UNDER THE FCRA

The Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), 15 U.S.C. §1681-1681y, requires that this notice be provided to inform users of consumer reports of their legal obligations. State law may impose additional requirements. The text of the FCRA is set forth in full at the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau's (CFPB) website at www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore. At the end of this document is a list of United States Code citations for the FCRA. Other information about user duties is also available at the Bureau's website. Users must consult the relevant provisions of the FCRA for details about their obligations under the FCRA.

The first section of this summary sets forth the responsibilities imposed by the FCRA on all users of consumer reports. The subsequent sections discuss the duties of users of reports that contain specific types of information, or that are used for certain purposes, and the legal consequences of violations. If you are a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency (CRA), you have additional obligations and will receive a separate notice from the CRA describing your duties as a furnisher.

I. Obligations of All Users of Consumer Reports

A. Users Must Have a Permissible Purpose

Congress has limited the use of consumer reports to protect consumers' privacy. All users must have a permissible purpose under the FCRA to obtain a consumer report.

Section 604 contains a list of the permissible purposes under the law. These are:

- As ordered by a court or federal grand jury subpoena. Section 604(a)(1)
- As instructed by the consumer in writing. Section 604(a)(2)
- For the extension of credit as a result of an application from a consumer, or the review or collection of a consumer's account. Section 604(a)(3)(A)
- For employment purposes, including hiring and promotion decisions, where the consumer has given written permission. Section 604(a)(3)(B) and 604(b)
- For the underwriting of insurance as a result of an application from a consumer. Section 604(a)(3)(C)
- When there is a legitimate business need, in connection with a business transaction that is initiated by the consumer. Section 604(a)(3)(F)(i)
- To review a consumer's account to determine whether the consumer continues to meet the terms of the account. Section 604(a)(3)(F)(ii)
- To determine a consumer's eligibility for a license or other benefit granted by a governmental instrumentality required by law to consider an applicant's financial responsibility or status. Section 604(a)(3)(D)
- For use by a potential investor or servicer, or current insurer, in a valuation or assessment of the credit or prepayment risks associated with an existing credit obligation. Section 604(a)(3)(E)
- For use by state or local officials in connection with the determination of child support payments, or modifications and enforcement thereof. Sections 604(a)(4) and 604(a)(5).

In addition, creditors and insurers may obtain certain consumer report information for the purpose of making "prescreened" unsolicited offers of credit or insurance. Section 604(c). The particular obligations of users of "prescreened" information are described in Section VII below.

B. Users Must Provide Certifications

Section 604(f) prohibits any person from obtaining a consumer report from a consumer reporting agency (CRA) unless the person has certified to the CRA the permissible purpose(s) for which the report is being obtained and certifies that the report will not be used for any other purpose.

C. Users Must Notify Consumers When Adverse Actions Are Taken

The term "adverse action" is defined very broadly by Section 603. "Adverse actions" include all business, credit, and employment actions affecting consumers that can be considered to have a negative impact as defined by Section 603(k) of the FCRA – such as denying or canceling credit or insurance, or denying employment or promotion. No adverse action occurs in a credit transaction where the creditor makes a counteroffer that is accepted by the consumer.

1. Adverse Actions Based on Information Obtained From a CRA

If a user takes any type of adverse action as defined by the FCRA that is based at least in part on information contained in a consumer report, Section 615(a) requires the user to notify the consumer. The notification may be done in writing, orally, or by electronic means. It must include the following:

- The name, address, and telephone number of the CRA (including a toll-free telephone number, if it is a nationwide CRA) that provided the report.
- A statement that the CRA did not make the adverse decision and is not able to explain why the decision was made.
- A statement setting forth the consumer's right to obtain a free disclosure of the consumer's file from the CRA if the consumer makes a request within 60 days.
- A statement setting forth the consumer's right to dispute directly with the CRA the accuracy or completeness of any information provided by the CRA.

2. Adverse Actions Based on Information Obtained from Third Parties Who Are Not Consumer Reporting Agencies

If a person denies (or increases the charge for) credit for personal, family, or household purposes based either wholly or partly upon information from a person other than a CRA, and the information is the type of consumer information covered by the FCRA, Section 615(b)(1) requires that the user clearly and accurately disclose to the consumer his or her right to be told the nature of the information that was relied upon if the consumer makes a written request within 60 days of notification. The user must provide the disclosure within a reasonable period of time following the consumer's written request.

3. Adverse Actions Based on Information Obtained From Affiliates

If a person takes an adverse action involving insurance, employment, or a credit transaction initiated by the consumer, based on information of the type covered by the FCRA, and this information was obtained from an entity affiliated with the user of the information by common ownership or control, Section 615(b)(2) requires the user to notify the consumer of the adverse action. The notice must inform the consumer that he or she may obtain a disclosure of the nature of the information relied upon by making a written request within 60 days of receiving the adverse action notice. If the consumer makes such a request, the user must disclose the nature of the information not later than 30 days after receiving the request. If consumer report information is shared among affiliates and then used for an adverse action, the user must make an adverse action disclosure set forth in I.C.1 above.

D. Users Have Obligations When Fraud and Active Duty Military Alerts are in Files

When a consumer has placed a fraud alert, including one relating to identity theft, or an active duty military alert with a nationwide consumer reporting agency as defined in Section 603(p) and resellers, Section 605A(h) imposes limitations on users of reports obtained from the consumer reporting agency in certain circumstances, including the establishment of a new credit plan and the issuance of additional credit cards. For initial fraud alerts and active duty alerts, the user must have reasonable policies and procedures in place to form a belief that the user knows the identity of the applicant or contact the consumer at a telephone number specified by the consumer; in the case of extended fraud alerts, the user must contact the consumer in accordance with the contact information provided in the consumer's alert.

E. Users Have Obligations When Notified of an Address Discrepancy

Section 605(h) requires nationwide CRAs, as defined in Section 603(p), to notify users that request reports when the address for a consumer provided by the user in requesting the report is substantially different from the addresses in the consumer's file. When this occurs, users must comply with regulations specifying the procedures to be followed. Federal regulations are available at www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

F. Users Have Obligations When Disposing of Records

Section 628 requires that all users of consumer report information have in place procedures to properly dispose of records containing this information. Federal regulations have been issued that cover disposal.

SCHEDULE C

Required Supplemental Terms and Conditions

II. Creditors Must Make Additional Disclosures

If a person uses a consumer report in connection with an application for, or a grant, extension, or provision of, credit to a consumer on material terms that are materially less favorable than the most favorable terms available to a substantial proportion of consumers from or through that person, based in whole or in part on a consumer report, the person must provide a risk-based pricing notice to the consumer in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau. Section 609(g) requires a disclosure by all persons that make or arrange loans secured by residential real property (one to four units) and that use credit scores. These persons must provide credit scores and other information about credit scores to applicants, including the disclosure set forth in Section 609(g)(1)(D) ("Notice to the Home Loan Applicant").

III. Obligations Of Users When Consumer Reports Are Obtained For Employment Purposes

A. Employment Other Than in the Trucking Industry

If information from a CRA is used for employment purposes, the user has specific duties, which are set forth in Section 604(b) of the FCRA. The user must:

- Make a clear and conspicuous written disclosure to the consumer before the report is obtained, in a document that consists solely of the disclosure, that a consumer report may be obtained.
- Obtain from the consumer prior written authorization. Authorization to access reports during the term of employment may be obtained at the time of employment.
- Certify to the CRA that the above steps have been followed, that the information being obtained will not be used in violation of any federal or state equal opportunity law or regulation, and that, if any adverse action is to be taken based on the consumer report, a copy of the report and a summary of the consumer's rights will be provided to the consumer.
- Before taking an adverse action, the user must provide a copy of the report to the consumer as well as the summary of the consumer's rights. (The user should receive this summary from the CRA.). A Section 615(a) adverse action notice should be sent after the adverse action is taken.

An adverse action notice also is required in employment situations if credit information (other than transactions and experience data) obtained from an affiliate is used to deny employment. Section 615(b)(2). The procedures for investigative consumer reports and employee misconduct investigations are set forth below.

B. Employment in the Trucking Industry

Special rules apply for truck drivers where the only interaction between the consumer and the potential employer is by mail, telephone, or computer. In this case, the consumer may provide consent orally or electronically, and an adverse action may be made orally, in writing, or electronically. The consumer may obtain a copy of any report relied upon by the trucking company by contacting the company.

IV. Obligations When Investigative Consumer Reports Are Used

Investigative consumer reports are a special type of consumer report in which information about a consumer's character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and mode of living is obtained through personal interviews by an entity or person that is a consumer reporting agency. Consumers who are the subject of such reports are given special rights under the FCRA. If a user intends to obtain an investigative consumer report, Section 606 requires the following:

- The user must disclose to the consumer that an investigative consumer report may be obtained. This must be done in a written disclosure that is mailed, or otherwise delivered, to the consumer at some time before or not later than three days after the date on which the report was first requested. The disclosure must include a statement informing the consumer of his or her right to request additional disclosures of the nature and scope of the investigation as described below, and the summary of consumer rights required by Section 609 of the FCRA. (The summary of consumer rights will be provided by the CRA that conducts the investigation.)
- The user must certify to the CRA that the disclosures set forth above have been made and that the user will make the disclosure below.
- Upon written request of a consumer made within a reasonable period of time after the disclosures required above, the user must make a complete disclosure of the nature and scope of the investigation. This must be made in a written statement that is mailed, or otherwise delivered, to the consumer no later than five days after the date on which the request was received from the consumer or the report was first requested, whichever is later in time.

V. Special Procedures for Employee Investigations

Section 603(x) provides special procedures for investigations of suspected misconduct by an employee or for compliance with Federal, state or local laws and regulations or the rules of a self-regulatory organization, and compliance with written policies of the employer. These investigations are not treated as consumer reports so long as the employer or its agent complies with the procedures set forth in Section 603(x), and a summary describing the nature and scope of the inquiry is made to the employee if an adverse action is taken based on the investigation.

VI. Obligations Of Users Of Medical Information

Section 604(g) limits the use of medical information obtained from consumer reporting agencies (other than payment information that appears in a coded form that does not identify the medical provider). If the information is to be used for an insurance transaction, the consumer must give consent to the user of the report or the information must be coded. If the report is to be used for employment purposes - or in connection with a credit transaction (except as provided in federal regulations) - the consumer must provide specific written consent and the medical information must be relevant. Any user who receives medical information shall not disclose the information to any other person (except where necessary to carry out the purpose for which the information was disclosed, or as permitted by statute, regulation, or order).

VII. Obligations Of Users Of "Prescreened" Lists

The FCRA permits creditors and insurers to obtain limited consumer report information for use in connection with unsolicited offers of credit or insurance under certain circumstances. Section 603(l), 604(c), 604(e), and 615(d). This practice is known as "prescreening" and typically involves obtaining from a CRA a list of consumers who meet certain pre-established criteria. If any person intends to use prescreened lists, that person must (1) before the offer is made, establish the criteria that will be relied upon to make the offer and to grant credit or insurance, and (2) maintain such criteria on file for a three-year period beginning on the date on which the offer is made to each consumer. In addition, any user must provide with each written solicitation a clear and conspicuous statement that:

- Information contained in a consumer's CRA file was used in connection with the transaction.
- The consumer received the offer because he or she satisfied the criteria for credit worthiness or insurability used to screen for the offer.
- Credit or insurance may not be extended if, after the consumer responds, it is determined that the consumer does not meet the criteria used for screening or any applicable criteria bearing on credit worthiness or insurability, or the consumer does not furnish required collateral.
- The consumer may prohibit the use of information in his or her file in connection with future prescreened offers of credit or insurance by contacting the notification system established by the CRA that provided the report. This statement must include the address and the toll-free telephone number of the appropriate notification system. In addition, once the CFPB has established the format, type size, and manner of the disclosure required by Section 615(d), with which users must comply. The relevant regulation is 12 CFR 1022.54.

SCHEDULE C

Required Supplemental Terms and Conditions

VIII. Obligations of Resellers

A. Disclosure and Certification Requirements

Section 607(e) requires any person who obtains a consumer report for resale to take the following steps:

- Disclose the identity of the end-user to the source CRA.
- Identify to the source CRA each permissible purpose for which the report will be furnished to the end-user.
- Establish and follow reasonable procedures to ensure that reports are resold only for permissible purposes, including procedures to obtain:
 - 1) the identity of all end-users;
 - 2) certifications from all users of each purposes for which reports will be used; and
 - 3) certifications that reports will not be used for any purpose other than the purpose(s) specified to the reseller. Resellers must make reasonable efforts to verify this information before selling the report.

B. Reinvestigations by Resellers

Under Section 611(f), if a consumer disputes the accuracy or completeness of information in a report prepared by a reseller, the reseller must determine whether this is a result of an action or omission on its part and, if so, correct or delete the information. If not, the reseller must send the dispute to the source CRA for reinvestigation. When any CRA notifies the reseller of the results of an investigation, the reseller must immediately convey the information to the consumer.

C. Fraud Alerts and Resellers

Section 605A(f) requires resellers who receive fraud alerts or active duty alerts from another consumer reporting agency to include these in their reports.

IX. Liability For Violations Of The FCRA

Failure to comply with the FCRA can result in state government or federal government enforcement actions, as well as private lawsuits. Sections 616, 617, and 621. In addition, any person who knowingly and willfully obtains a consumer report under false pretenses may face criminal prosecution. Section 619.

SCHEDULE C

Required Supplemental Terms and Conditions

Secure Screening Report Access (“SSRA”) Services Terms of Use

Version: January 30, 2025

These SSRA services Terms of Use, which will be updated from time to time (the “SSRA TOU”), are hereby incorporated into the Screening Services Activation Agreement (the “Agreement”) that applies to the RentGrow tenant screening services you license from RentGrow, Inc. (“RentGrow”). You can access the most current version of the SSRA TOU online anytime here: <http://www.rentgrow.com/us-screening-schedule-c>.

For purposes of these SSRA TOU, “you”, “your”, “housing provider”, “end-user”, “user”, “Client”, and “Subscriber”, all mean and refer to Client and End-User as defined in the Agreement, as applicable. Any capitalized terms used and not defined herein have the same meaning as defined in the Agreement.

The SSRA services apply to Properties in California and Colorado that use the RentGrow Services, but will apply to Properties in other states over time. Unless these SSRA TOU are updated to the contrary, the SSRA TOU shall automatically apply to Properties in other states at the time the SSRA services begin in those states, which RentGrow may begin without notice. The SSRA services are designed to deliver to each Applicant who provides a valid email address when applying to any of your Properties in the applicable states that screen Applicants using the RentGrow Services a copy of the Applicant’s tenant screening report, which is delivered via a secure link. In addition to delivering a copy of the Applicant’s tenant screening report to the Applicant, the SSRA services include the ability for you to generate a report, at whatever time interval you choose, that indicates the name of the Applicant, whether their screening report was undeliverable to the email address provided by the Applicant, or whether their screening report was not deliverable because the Applicant did not provide an email address.

THE SSRA SERVICES ARE A TOOL TO HELP YOU MEET CERTAIN LEGAL OBLIGATIONS THAT, WHEN APPLICABLE, MAY REQUIRE YOU TO DELIVER TO YOUR APPLICANTS A COPY OF THEIR TENANT SCREENING REPORT. ONE SUCH EXAMPLE IS YOUR OBLIGATION UNDER CALIFORNIA LAW (NOT RENTGROW’S OBLIGATION) TO PROVIDE APPLICANTS WITH A “CHECK BOX” ON YOUR RENTAL APPLICATION FOR THE CONSUMER TO EXPRESSLY REQUEST A COPY OF THEIR SCREENING REPORT AND TO DELIVER A COPY OF THE SCREENING REPORT WITHIN THREE BUSINESS DAYS TO APPLICANTS THAT REQUEST IT AS REQUIRED UNDER CALIFORNIA’S INVESTIGATIVE CONSUMER REPORTING AGENCY ACT (“ICRAA”).

THE REPORT COPY THAT IS DELIVERED TO AN APPLICANT BY THE SSRA SERVICES IS NOT INTENDED TO BE A PORTABLE OR REUSABLE TENANT SCREENING REPORT AS THESE TERMS ARE UNDERSTOOD, DEFINED, OR DESCRIBED IN CERTAIN JURISDICTIONS. THE REPORT COPY THAT IS DELIVERED IS INTENDED FOR THE CONSUMER AND REFLECTS THE SCREENING INFORMATION RENTGROW PROVIDED ABOUT THE CONSUMER TO THE SPECIFIC PROPERTY WHERE THE CONSUMER APPLIED.

RentGrow, as an Investigative Consumer Reporting Agency, as defined by California’s ICRAA, has its own independent obligations under ICRAA. NOTHING ABOUT THE SSRA SERVICES, IN THESE SSRA TOU, OR IN YOUR AGREEMENT SHALL CREATE ANY LEGAL OBLIGATION THAT DOES NOT EXIST OR SHIFT ANY EXISTING LEGAL OBLIGATION FROM YOU TO RENTGROW, OR FROM RENTGROW TO YOU.

YOU, NOT RENTGROW, ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR MONITORING THE DELIVERY OF SCREENING REPORTS TO YOUR APPLICANTS, INCLUDING ANY OF YOUR DELIVERY OBLIGATIONS REQUIRED BY LAW. TO THE FULLEST EXTENT ALLOWED BY LAW, RENTGROW DISCLAIMS ALL WARRANTIES WITH REGARD TO THE SSRA SERVICES PROVIDED PURSUANT TO THESE SSRA TOU INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. IF THE SSRA SERVICES DO NOT DELIVER A REPORT TO AN APPLICANT FOR ANY REASON, IT IS YOUR SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE OBLIGATION TO DO SO MANUALLY AND WITHIN ANY APPLICABLE TIME FRAME THAT MAY BE REQUIRED BY LAW.

IN THE EVENT OF ANY LOSS, CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION ARISING OUT OF OR CONNECTED WITH YOUR FAILURE TO MONITOR THE DELIVERY OF REPORTS VIA THE SSRA SERVICE AND, IF NECESSARY, TO MANUALLY DELIVER SCREENING REPORTS TO YOUR APPLICANTS WITHIN ANY APPLICABLE TIME FRAME, RENTGROW SHALL HAVE NO LIABILITY TO YOU, REGARDLESS OF THE AMOUNT OF LOSS YOU MAY HAVE SUFFERED OR CLAIM TO HAVE SUFFERED, EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY PERMITTED AND AS STRICTLY LIMITED BY THE TERMS OF YOUR AGREEMENT.

FOR THE AVOIDANCE OF DOUBT, IF, FOR ANY REASON, YOU QUESTION THE SUFFICIENCY OF THE SSRA SERVICES OR DETERMINE THAT THE SSRA SERVICES DO NOT MEET YOUR SPECIFIC NEEDS OR OBLIGATIONS, YOU MUST IMPLEMENT YOUR OWN INDEPENDENT PROCESS FOR DELIVERING SCREENING REPORTS TO YOUR TENANT APPLICANTS WHEN ANY SUCH OBLIGATION APPLIES TO YOU. DETERMINING WHETHER YOU HAVE SUCH AN OBLIGATION IS YOUR SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE RESPONSIBILITY. NOTHING IN THESE SSRA TOU, IN YOUR AGREEMENT, OR WITH THE SSRA SERVICES IS OR ARE INTENDED TO, NOR SHALL THEY, ALLEVIATE ANY OBLIGATION YOU HAVE UNDER THE LAW OR OTHERWISE, AND YOU AND YOUR LEGAL AND COMPLIANCE TEAMS SHOULD REGULARLY REVIEW, UNDERSTAND, AND COMPLY WITH ALL LAWS AND OBLIGATIONS THAT APPLY TO YOU AND YOUR PROPERTIES, WHEREVER THEY ARE LOCATED.

SentiLink’s rights with respect to Depersonalized Information or any data incorporated into its Services, including fraud prevention algorithms and models, under this provision shall survive the termination of the Agreement or any Service.
7. Indemnification. End User shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless SentiLink and its officers, employees, directors, agents, affiliates and shareholders, in their individual capacities or otherwise, (i) from and against any and all Claims asserted by an Applicant against SentiLink, and (ii) from and against any damages, costs, and expenses of such Applicant awarded against SentiLink by a final court judgment or an agreement settling such Claims in accordance with this Section 7.
